

Texas Caucus of Black School Board Members

The Texas Caucus of Black School Board Members (TCBSBM) announces the 15th Annual Educational Summit to be held on March 10-12, 2022, at the Kalahari Resort in Round Rock, Texas. Board members, superintendents, educators, and other stakeholders will be attending the Summit. We anticipate over 100 school Board Members and other School Administrators/stakeholders to be in attendance. Recognized educational will present topics related to the theme "Building the New Educational School Transformation Model" School

This is an excellent opportunity for you to support this worthy cause and gain exposure to school district leaders. Please see attachment below for sponsorship details.

What is TCBSBM

TCBSBM – Texas Caucus of Black School Board Member is a non-profit 501 (C)(3) organization that speaks on behalf of quality education for all children in the state of Texas. Our members are committed to serve as an official advisory body on matters relating to issues of concern to African Americans on local school boards; positions on the Texas Association of School Boards; and the National School Boards Association

We promote better relationships and understanding between African American school board members, their local communities and local school boards, the Texas Association of School Boards; and the National School Boards Association. With over 100 active members from the State of Texas, TCBSBM is the premier professional society for African American school board members, and educators.
